Application of Belgacom International Carrier Services N.V./S.A.

Answer to Question 14:

BICS is 72 percent owned by Belgacom S.A./N.V. (“Belgacom”), a Belgium corporation located at 27 Boulevard Roi Albert II, Brussels, Belgium. Belgacom is a telecommunications company licensed in Belgium, where it provides retail and wholesale fixed-line telephony services and broadband data and Internet services. Belgacom also has a 75 percent equity interest in Belgacom Mobile, a provider of mobile communications services in Belgium.

Belgacom, in turn, is owned approximately 53 percent by the Belgian State.¹ The remaining shares of Belgacom (except for less than 1 percent of the shares that are held by Belgacom employees) are publicly traded on the Euronext exchange. No person or entity holds 10 percent or more of such stock.

The remaining 28 percent equity interest in BICS is held by Swisscom Fixnet Ltd (“Swisscom Fixnet”), a Swiss corporation located at Alte Tiefenastrasse 6, 3050 Bern, Switzerland. Swisscom Fixnet is a telecommunications company headquartered and licensed in Switzerland, where it provides (amongst other services) fixed-line telephony services.

Swisscom Fixnet is wholly owned by its parent company, Swisscom Ltd, a Swiss corporation located at Alte Tiefenastrasse 6, 3050 Bern, Switzerland. Swisscom Ltd. is a holding company. The Swiss Confederation owns approximately 68 percent of Swisscom Ltd.² The remainder of Swisscom Ltd. is publicly traded, and no other shareholder holds a sufficient share of Swisscom Ltd to constitute a 10 percent or greater interest in BICS.

Exhibit A hereto sets forth a diagram of this ownership.
